Eco-Social Development Organization (ESDO)

Our Theory of Change

ESDO believes that systemic and enduring change is possible when communities are able to initiate and drive their own development agenda, work with governments, and other actors to access basic rights and services as well as harness and grow their own resources. ESDO therefore invests in enhancing organized community-led initiatives to create a firm basis for sustainable development and social justice.

A WORD FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Today, ESDO is in an exemplary position thanks to the skills and commitment of our teams, which remain dedicated to providing quality service to all our beneficiaries. As the chairman of ESDO Executive Committee, I am proud of ESDO. Proud of an organization that was able to professionalize itself and adapt to the challenges of our times while staying attentive to what we do best: contributing to the development of people, communities and organizations in the social and humanitarian spheres.

It is a great honor and immense pleasure for me to write the message for ESDO Annual Report 2018-2019. Likewise past years we made a significant progress towards our Vision and Mission i.e. establishing an equitable society and reducing in poverty and hunger for poor and marginalized people. I would like to congratulate and thank our dynamic Founder Executive Director, Dr. Md. Shahid Uz Zaman for leading the team from the front. Where there is a success, there is a team behind it. I like to congratulate and thank all staff member of ESDO team for their sincere efforts to make this happened.

Within the reporting year 2018-2019, ESDO has been expended both horizontally and vertically by covering more areas and people and integrating activities. We reached with our services to 9 million people in 49 districts in 2018-2019. Past year we achieved considerable success in proactive participation of grassroots people and other relevant actors. We have made notable achievement in livelihood improvement, food security and nutrition, education, women empowerment, health for child and adolescents, community hygiene, reduction of child labor and rights for ethnic minorities.

Thanks to the generous support of our donors partners, government agencies and all stakeholders for their continuous supports and efforts and with your help, we will continue to bring sustainable change to the lives of under privileged communities of Bangladesh.

Principal Md. Khalilur Rahman

Chairman, Executive Committee, ESDO

LETTER FROM THE FOUNDER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I am very pleased to share our work for the year 2018-2019, our success, and our challenges with stories of growth and empowerment. I do hope you enjoy reading them. We would not be able to report such progress without continuous support and contributions of our development partners and supporters.

ESDO has made gigantic strides since its inception in the year 1988. The organization is marching ahead - each year being more eventful than the previous one. From our humble beginnings in 1988 in extreme north-western Bangladesh, we have continued to play the role of a catalyst in mobilizing and empowering the marginalized communities through increased range of programmes and activities to address the root causes of issues like poverty, deprivation, exploitation and abuse that hamper the realization of their civic and human rights.

The Annual Report is not only reflecting our accomplishments but a shared effort of 1.5 million under-privileged Families of 2231 union, 273 upazillas & 49 district of Bangladesh. At the same time 1018 Development Volunteers, 3759 ESDO team members who are continued to march ahead with the great momentum to bring the best for the community. This Report showcases how ESDO's work with the community, for the community, to the community with combined efforts.

ESDO followed the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and considering the SDG goal within the reporting year, we addressed SDG Goal 1: Eleven projects, SDG Goal 2: Four projects, SDG Goal 3: Eight projects, SDG Goal 4: Five projects, SDG Goal 5: Three projects, SDG Goal 6: Five projects, SDG Goal 7: Two projects, SDG Goal 8: Seven projects, SDG Goal 9: One project, SDG Goal 10: Three projects, SDG Goal 11: Three projects, SDG Goal 12: Four projects, SDG Goal 13: Six projects, SDG Goal 15: One project and SDG Goal 16: Four projects. Within this reporting year, ESDO has made some significant innovation for appropriate development initiatives through participatory and grass-roots centered process. We firmly believe that, there is no single formula for development initiatives.

At the same time, other than ensuring entitlement and dignity of the target audiences, fruitful result never be achieved. Innovation, Change, and responsibility of all the concern stakeholders are the main instrument and vehicle for appropriate development. Considering these points of views, ESDO tries to promote integrated participatory development initiatives within its working areas. Most of the cases thousands of different success examples have already been made and most significant changes have been observed by the local communities and development partners. ESDO has successfully served excellent services especially to un-served and under-served areas and populations like char, urban slums, ethnic minorities, child labour and vulnerable women with the support of our development partner's like minded alliances and other actors.

We always are grateful for government & development partners who have unflinchingly supported our work throughout the year, which has brought us closure to achieving our mission. Without their support and guidance, ESDO would not be able to mark positive changes in underprivileged lives.

The General Committee and Executive Committee of ESDO always provided their valuable advice and guidance for ensuring quality services and promoting innovations. We always recognize their most valuable contributions.

The Team members of ESDO have been contributing their dedication and contribution for ensuring best services for our target audience. Very big thanks for them.

Finally, The Program participants of ESDO - they are continuing their fighting against human and income poverty. Their struggling, success, and tried less efforts are really a good example and hope for up-coming poverty-free Bangladesh. I salute them for their great initiatives.

Dr. Md. Shahid Uz Zaman

Member Secretary & Founder Executive Director ESDO

WHO WE ARE: THE ECO-SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION (ESDO)

Eco-Social Development Organization (ESDO) has started its journey in 1988 with a noble vision to stand in solidarity with the poor and marginalized people. Being a peoples' centered organization, we envisioned for a society which will be free from inequality and injustice, a society where no child will cry from hunger and no life will be ruined by poverty. Over the last thirty years of relentless efforts to make this happen, we have embraced new grounds and opened up new horizons to facilitate the disadvantaged and vulnerable people to bring meaningful and lasting changes in their lives. During this long span, we have adapted with the changing situation and provided the most time-bound effective services especially to the poor and disadvantaged people.

We seek an equitable society free from all discriminations.

Reduction in income poverty and human poverty of the people in ESDOs working area through undertaking massive integrated development program for the poor and marginalized community through service delivery and rights based approach. Income generation literacy programme nutrition and health programme human rights and good governance programme giving proper importance to environmental protection and regeneration. ESDO firmly believes and is actively involved in promoting human rights, dignity and gender equality through people's social, economic, political and human capacity building. Women in general and children are the core and central focus of its activities. Strengthening the organizational capacity carries importance to ensure quality of its services. Extending its services to the ultra poor is its main manifesto.

The Galleries

River Gallery: Bangladesh is a riverine country. Bangladesh, a country of 56000 Square mile, is crisscrossed by many rivers. The River Gallery was open to the visitors in 2016. An amazing fact is that water of almost all the rivers is preserved here. Many objects of river-centric different occupations are also displayed here. Moreover, this gallery has a rich collection of objects, inventory of rivers, information of boats, boat festivals, bhatiali song, and rural folk music composed out of love for river and nature. Information on char, flood, fisheries, birds, are also presented here. Our rivers are our best assets; our best friends too. However, a coordinated effort is required to save these rivers, canals, beels from decay and death. It is we who can make this earth a livable dwelling for all of us.

Plain Land Ethnic Minority Gallery : Bangladesh is a dwelling place of multi ethnic people. This country has a rich cultural heritage along with diversified culture of ethnic minority. This gallery is dedicated to the ethnic minority of plain land. Lokayan has demonstrated their livelihood, culture, dwelling, dress, food habit, occupations, festivals, and other social events.

Grassroots Folk Gallery: This grassroots folk gallery was open to visitors in 2006. Some important collections are as follows: Agriculture: Plough, Ladder, Spade, Sickle, Winnow, Sieve, weedier, axe, chopper, crowbar, doolie, cooking tools etc; these implements are locally made of stone, wood and iron. Herbal Medicine and Treatment: Mortar and pestle, small pot made of Stone, Amulet (protective metal ring used for protection against evil), protective garment, spell stick etc. Cultural Instruments: Dhak, Dhol, Flute, Hollow Cylindrical instrument for music beaten with sticks, small Hollow Cylindrical instrument, Drum, Single string and double string music instrument, Mrdanga,

Liberation War Gallery: As a tribute to the martyrs of independence war ESDO built 'Aparajeo Ekattor' in 2012. ESDO also built a sculpture 'Muktiro Mandiro Sopanotole' to pay tribute to sacrifices in liberation war. It also renovated the grave of first martyr Mohammad Ali of Thakurgaon, who sacrifice his life for the cause of freedom. Liberation War Gallery at Lokayan Life Diversity Museum has also been created. This Gallery has been divided in different corners named Old Age, Middle Age, 1757-1947, 1947-1971 and exclusively Nine Month of Independence. ## ESDO Popular Theater Team

The Major achievements

ESDO Popular Theater Team consists of 12 members (in combination of folk singers, drama performers, and musicians) and 1 well equipped (musical Instruments, generator, mobile stage, sound system etc.) covered mobile pick-up van has been successfully performing in ESDO's working area. UNDP and ILO have already provided funding support for ESDO Popular Theater. Objectives of ESDO Popular Theatre: (i) Enhancing access to information and awareness of grassroots communities on various socio-economic issues, rights, resources and services through infotainment (ii) Promoting the voices of the poor and disadvantaged, especially women (iii) Promoting community participation in local development and developing popular theatre performers as grassroots human rights activists (iv) Exploring indigenous folk culture, traditions, and creative arts and utilizing them for the development of rural communities, Impact of Popular Theatre: Popular Theatre is collectivizing and transforming rural communities and unites them to address social injustice and exploitation. Popular Theatre also promotes women's empowerment. Women are being exposed to new information and ideas through plays, which they did not have access to before. Watching shows as a community is increasing their mobility in society, allows for gender-mixing, and provides a platform for contributory discussions. Women develop a higher confidence level as their voices and opinions are heard in the participatory discussions after the play. Simply watching a play becomes a vital form of communication since it creates sustainable and gradual shifts in perceptions without directly threatening local culture and traditions.

- Within the reporting year performed more than 300 shows with the support of different donors.
- The main messages of the shows: dowry, early marriage, women empowerment, justice, education, water & sanitation, safe migration etc.
- Around, 40 thousand people enjoyed and sensitized through these events.

Independent Auditor's Report

To The Members of the Executive Directors of
Eco Social Development Organization (ESDO)

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the Consolidated financial statements of Eco Social Development Organization (ESDO), which comprise the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position as at 30 June 2019 and the Consolidated Statement of Comprehensive Income, Statement of Cash Flows, Consolidated Statement of Receipts and Payments for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects of the Consolidated financial position of Eco Social Development Organization (ESDO) as at 30 June 2019 and of its financial performance, its cash flows and its receipts and payments for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) and other applicable laws and regulations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the organization in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (IESBA Code) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in jurisdictions, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and with the IESBA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matter are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Consolidated financial statements of current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on this matters.

We have determined that there are no key audit matters to communicate in our opinion.

Other information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information other than the Consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the Consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the Consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs), and other applicable laws and regulations and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
